Explanation of changes and other important information

We assessed your return and you have a balance due. If you paid this balance and your payment is not appearing on this notice, please note it may take up to 10 business days for your payment to be reflected in our system. You can view your account balance and statement of account online using My Account. You can also use the CRA's Individual Tax Account Balance Automated Service by calling 1-866-474-8272. This service is available seven days a week and allows you to quickly get your account balance and information about your last payment. You will be asked to provide your social insurance number, your date of birth, and the amount reported at line 15000 on your tax return.

We added $754 to your income because you did not designate a repayment under the Home Buyers' Plan.

Our records show that you arranged with the Canada Employment Insurance Commission, through Service Canada, to participate in the employment insurance (EI) program to get EI special benefits. As a result, you have to pay EI premiums on your self-employment earnings. We changed your federal amount for the EI premiums on self-employment and other eligible earnings to $128.18. We made same change to your British Columbia amount. If needed, we also changed your EI premiums payable.

We reduced your non-capital losses of other years from $18,252 to $13,563. Based on the information you gave us, this is the maximum amount you can use on your 2020 return.

We changed your federal tuition, education, and textbook amounts from $0 to $395. This includes $395 of unused federal amounts from prior years.

We will automatically calculate your goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax credit and any related provincial credit based on your family net income, province of residence, marital status, and qualified children. If you qualify for any credit for July 2021 to June 2022, we will let you know in July.

Your Canada training credit limit for next year is $250.00. This credit will expire at the end of the year you turn 65 or the year of death.

We recalculated your federal non-refundable tax credits and changed your total on line 35000 from $2,018 to $2,097.

We recalculated your British Columbia non-refundable tax credits from $565 to $572.

If you have any questions about your assessment, please call our Individual Tax and Enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281.
